

The Flower Friends and Their Girl Scout Law Values

Hello, I'm Sunny, the sunflower. I'm from Great Britain and I'm friendly and helpful. I join the road trip in Pittsburgh.

Hi, I'm Daisy. I represent all parts of the Girl Scout Law. The Daisy Flower Garden is named for me—and for all Girl Scout Daisies, including Girl Scouts founder Juliette “Daisy” Gordon Low.

Hi, I'm Lupe, the lupine. I'm blue and honest and fair. I love to summer in Maine. I'm in the driver's seat on this road trip.

Hi, I'm Zinni, the zinnia. I'm spring green and considerate and caring. I'm from Mexico and I'm Lupe's first passenger on this trip.

Hi, I'm Mari, the marigold. I'm orange and “responsible for what I say and do.” I stay home in the Daisy Flower Garden.

Hi, I'm Tula, the tulip. I'm red and courageous and strong. I'm from Holland. I join the road trip in Washington State.

Hi, I'm Gloria, the morning glory. I'm purple and I “respect myself and others.” My flower friends visit me in Maine.

Hi, I'm Geri, the geranium. I'm magenta and I respect authority. I stay home in the Daisy Flower Garden.

Hi, I'm Rosie, the rose. I like to “make the world a better place.” I join the road trip in California.

Hi, I'm Vi, the violet. I'm “a sister to every Girl Scout.” I'm from Australia. I stay home in the Daisy garden, too.

Hello, I'm Clover. I'm green with white flowers. I use resources wisely. I join the road trip, too—to get to Alaska.
