

Episode One Trivia Cards

Answer Sheet

Baking is a science and Girl Scouts have plenty of opportunities to learn about science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM). How many STEM badges does Girl Scouts currently offer?

- a. 5
- b. 47
- c. 20
- d. 78

Crowd-pleasing Thin Mints have a long history. In which year did the chocolate mint flavor make its debut? (Hint: they weren't originally called Thin Mints!)

- a. 1917
- b. 1939
- c. 1960
- d. 1985

Girl Scout Victoria tells the contestants that an eye-catching sign draws cookie customers every time! But creating an eye-catching sign could also help you earn which badge?

- a. Drawing
- b. Digital Photographer
- c. Collage Artist
- d.. All of the above

Two contestants chose to recreate the Earth in their cakes. Which Girl Scout celebration is dedicated to connecting with the world around you?

- a. Juliette Gordon Low's birthday (October 31)
- b. World Thinking Day (February 22)
- c. Girl Scouts' birthday (March 12)
- d. Girl Scout Leaders' Day (April 22)

A space scene featuring Girl Scouts is on the front of which of the following new cookie packages:

- a. Samoas®/Caramel deLites®
- b. Trefoils®/Shortbread
- c. Caramel chocolate chip
- d. Thanks-a-lot®

Two space badges were mentioned in this episode: Space Science Explorer and Space Science Master. Which Girl Scout grade levels could earn these badges?

- a. Daisy and Ambassador
- b. Brownie and Junior
- c. Brownie and Senior
- d. Daisy and Cadette