

Episode Four Trivia Cards

See how far you'll go as you answer these Girl Scout trivia questions!

The trefoil has been the Girl Scout emblem since 1914—and a delicious shortbread cookie too—but what does the trefoil actually represent? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Three Girl Scout baking elves An awesome Girl Scout badge The first three Girl Scout Cookie flavors The Girl Scout Promise 	It's important to bring healthy snack options on your next trip! If you earned the ____ badge, you'd know how to make a healthy snack. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Safety First Are We There Yet Eating for You Road Trip 	Which photo scenario featuring Girl Scouts is on the front of the new Thin Mints® cookie package? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Camping Canoeing Rock band Robot design
As explained by Girl Scouts Alia and Sophia, how do girls earn the Traveler badge? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> By just traveling, duh. By researching a destination, planning an itinerary, creating a budget, and going on a trip. By making a dish from another country. By spinning a globe. 	The first Girl Scout Cookies were first sold in 1917. Which was the very first flavor? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Chocolate chip Salted caramel Lemon Sugar cookie 	Which of the following is the latest addition to the Girl Scout Cookie Program? <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Cookie Business badges Financial Literacy badges Cookie Entrepreneur Family pins Cookie Snacks pins

Episode Four Interactive Activities

Try one activity or try them all

CHALLENGE ONE

One of the badges mentioned in this episode is the Traveler badge, through which girls learn the ins and outs of trip planning. Where would your troop like to go in the coming year? And how could the Girl Scout Cookie Program help you get there?

(Hint: find stories about how cookies power amazing adventures on girlscouts.org!)

CHALLENGE TWO

Bridging is an important Girl Scout ceremony during which girls “bridge” to the next Girl Scout level and keep the fun going! Which awards could you earn as you bridge from one level to the next?

(Hint: find out more about bridging in the “Traditions” section of girlscouts.org!)

CHALLENGE THREE

All the Girl Scout Cookie boxes feature real Girl Scouts showcasing some of the amazing things girls do and learn as a Girl Scout. Journeys are one way to explore new activities. Which Girl Scout Journey could you do as a troop?

(Hint: find out more about Journeys under the “Our Program” section of girlscouts.org!)