What is Girl Scout Central?

Girl Scout Central is GSUSA's flagship retail store and event space in midtown Manhattan.

Girl Scout Central offers a huge selection of modern and traditional products for Girl Scouts (and brand enthusiasts) of all ages—from Daisies to Gold Award Girl Scouts to volunteers to alums. Badges, patches, and uniforms? Check! Jewelry, toys, and camping gear? Yup! T-shirts, caps, and hard-to-find Girl Scout collectibles? We've got you covered!

The store is also a premier event space where Girl Scouts, councils, volunteers, and the New York City community gather for presentations, parties, panel discussions, workshops, and program-related activities.

Girl Scout Central is a must-see destination for every Girl Scout visiting New York City! You'll connect with your inner G.I.R.L. (Go-getter, Innovator, Risk-taker, Leader)™ spirit—and have a great time while you're at it.

Chalkboard: Answer the special Girl Scout Central “Question of the Week” or leave a message for your Girl Scout sisters on the chalkboard wall.

SWAPS: SWAPS (Special Whatchamacallits Affectionately Pinned Somewhere) are a Girl Scout tradition. So bring a small token of friendship to pin on the Girl Scout Central SWAPS wall, and take a SWAPS left by a visiting Girl Scout. So cool!

G.I.R.L. Selfie Wall: Take a selfie (or a groupie!) in front of our G.I.R.L. wall. Share your photo on social media with your troop and family back home. Remember to tag us using #girlscoutcentral.

Historical Experience: A video about Girl Scout founder Juliette Gordon Low and the beginnings of the first Girl Scout troop in 1912, and self-guided exhibit from the GSUSA archive collection, featuring vintage uniforms, cookie boxes, and more.
