Hey Girl Scout!

A Purple Person is one who asks questions, uses their voice, helps others, works really hard, and strives to make the world a better place. Sounds like you, right?

Purple People Checklist

Were you a Purple person today?
Check off everything you’ve accomplished!

I asked tons of really great questions.

I laughed a whole lot.

I used my voice and didn’t lose my voice.

I worked super-duper hard.

I was totally me today!

LAUGH A LOT

Your troop meetings are full of laughter.
Keep it going with one of these knock-knock jokes!

Knock! Knock!
Who’s there?
Tank!
Tank who?
You’re welcome!

Knock! Knock!
Who’s there?
Owls say!
Owls say who?
Yes, they do.

Knock! Knock!
Who’s there?
Etch!
Etch who?
Bless you!

Knock! Knock!
Who’s there?
Beets!
Beets who?
Beets me!

COME UP WITH YOUR OWN KNOCK-KNOCK JOKE!

Knock! Knock!
Who’s there?

SPEAK UP

Girl Scouts know it’s important to use their voice to give good ideas, share opinions, and speak up for those who need help. Circle who’s being a PURPLE person below.

What should they say to the people using mean voices?

You can’t play with us!
CURIOUS QUESTIONS

Penny wants to know what shapes the stars make in the sky. Connect the dots to answer her question!

See the last page for the answer to Curious Questions.

WORK HARD

Find the worm hiding in this picture! Can you find the other three worms hiding throughout this booklet?

Find the worm above Penny, by the jungle gym, by the donkey, and on top of the answer box.
