Girls who sell via digital cookie sell more cookies. Parents with a current email on file can easily set up a girls' webpage, there are how to flyers and videos on the site. Customers pay for cookies when ordering so girls/parents do not have to collect monies. Customers do not pay credit card or transaction fees.

We will follow guidelines for Covid-19. If guidelines only allow girls to accept donated or shipped digital orders there will be different prices for digital cookie orders, which will include shipping costs.

For traditional cookie sales payment parents should set up a phone app payment system such as VENMO to collect customer payment. Parents can then pay the troop via this system.
